PUBLIC CONCERNED

- * The residencies are open to any visual artist, writer, or stand-up comedian over 18 who wants to escape to a natural, authentic, and rustic setting to find original inspiration and test their creativity.
- * At an altitude of 700 meters, you have to love the mid-mountains with their cool summer evenings and occasional summer thunderstorms.
- * Casa l'Enjouée dates back to 1860 and is composed entirely of recycled and restored furniture, in a flea market style. This choice is about finding a balance between contemporary modernity and the qualities of the past. Wi-Fi has been removed by choice, and there is no television. Only a plasma TV is available for watching films.
- * Public presentations are possible with mini on-site exhibitions.
